My Secrets	PP	64587	16.95
DinDin is one of today's top young artists and, alone or in collaboration with other icons such as Yael Naim, Mosh Ben-Ari and Idan Reichel, composes and sings her new-age pop hits. While Aviv was with the band Gaia its award-winning hit song Shir La'Ahava (Yahad) became an unofficial second Israel national anthem, and she was lead singer for Idan Raichel's Project on its number one award winning hit, Im Telech (If You Leave). This ACUM (Israeli "Grammy") award winning first solo album contains 3 chart topping singles—the title song plus "Familiar To Me" and "Dreaming" (with Ben-Ari). The album recently attained gold status and, shortly afterwards, Aviv successfully toured the U.S. Enclosed photo brochure contains all Hebrew lyrics.

BROZA DAVID (M)
Second Street	PP	2152RG	15.95
David Broza writes great acoustic folk melodies to the lyrics of his writer friends, as showcased in this album. The first track begins with an upbeat, urban, R&B rock sound. The other songs, such as "Dark Street of the Heart" and "Along the Hudson" blend a western rock, Latin and folk sound that describes the experiences of the singer. English lyrics are provided in the brochure.

Her musical heritage steeped in the rich sounds of her native Yemen, Shoshana Damari arrived in Israel in the 1950's and in the ensuing years developed the Israeli folk style that established her the country's leading female folk singer. In this powerful performance of her most famous songs Shoshana immortalizes the greatest Israeli folk tunes of all time.
🕒 Memorial Album (Vilensky)	FK	64659	16.95
The late Shoshana Damari was a queen of Israeli folk music, and Vilensky was her king. Complementing her vast range of genres, he wrote the songs that would elevate her from a green Yemenite immigrant to a national treasure. From rich, warm folk/pop music of Israel ("Kalaniot" [Red anemones] - as seen on the jacket), through ethnic music that put Yemenite Jewry on the map ("Miriam daughter of Nissim") to timeless ballads ("In Light of the Memories" [title track]) - they left an unforgettable legacy. Booklet has Hebrew lyrics, photos, album covers and the story of a fertile collaboration.

👉 Farewell Superstition	PP	64689	17.95
Beautiful and talented Miri Sings in a sensuous, soft rock style, accompanied by acoustic guitar and other unusual instruments in interesting arrangements. She co-composed the melody on one of the tracks, "Grown-up Girl," and some of Israel's new generation of artists, such as Keren Peles and Ben Artzi, worked on others, such as the title track. Booklet contains Hebrew lyrics.
👉 Miri Messika	PP	64364	17.95
Beautiful young singer/musician Miri is currently a hot item in Israel, providing the soft, melodic voice to music by young artists such as Keren Peles, Tamir Hitman and others. The 13 songs + bonus track on this CD include titles such as "Mood Elevation," "In this Circus," and "Night Trip." Hebrew lyrics and lovely photos are in the brochure. We expect to hear from Miri again soon!

👉 New Soul (with David Donatien)	PP	461628	18.95
Yael Na'im is a French-Israeli singer/songwriter who rose to fame when her song "New Soul" was used by Apple in an advertising campaign, and is the first Israeli solo artist to have a top ten hit in the United States. Songs in this critically acclaimed, chart-topping album are in French, English, and Hebrew with a touch of folk and jazz. Yael's voice is delicate and intentionally husky -her sound is mysterious and evocative.

The soft, emotive voice of Noa, one of Israel's most popular female singers, is showcased in this 2 disc collection, while the Solis String Quartet elevates the music to a fine art. Tracks include: "Wildflower," "Eye in the Sky," and the Yemenite traditional "Yuma," which has the stunning refrain "oh father, mother don't make me marry him for money/I love another whose eyes are kind and lips are honey." The disc closes with a stunning rendition of "Ave Maria." Booklet includes color pictures and Hebrew, Spanish, and English lyrics.
Napoli-Tel Aviv	PP	20832	18.95
Achinoam Nini (Noa), together with her accompanist and songwriter Gil Dor toured Napoli and were changed forever. While the Neapolitans loved the Israeli music Noa brought, they gave back music of their own, as well as the Solis String Quartet, that plays here and in Noa's previous CD and DVD. These poignant, joyful and bold songs were translated into Hebrew by Gil and writer Dan Almagor (Kazablan), sung in Noa's vibrant song stylings and impeccable accent. Hebrew lyrics and photos are in the brochure. You too will come to love Neapolitan music.

Innuendos	PP	64776	17.95
Three years in the making, and four years since her last album, the Israeli Diva is Back! Rita returns with a new album, Innuendos, full of soft and mellow sounds, unlike anything she has done up to now. Innuendos was produced by Ivri Lider and Gadi Gidor, with 11 new songs by Rami Kleinstein, Ivri Lider, Idan Raichel, Rita and others. This touching album was released after a long period of deliberation, perhaps reflecting the difficult time during which Rita left her record company and split with husband Rami Kleinstein.

TAMOUZ (G)
Debut Album: Tamouz New Edition +bonus CD	RK	81095N	17.95
Tamouz is one of Israel's first rock groups, and in this landmark re-release their pioneering sounds can be heard in remastered high fidelity. Band leader Shalom Hanoch believed in breaking down the barriers between performers and audience, to speak directly to them, and this viewpoint is in evidence in the second disk of this album, containing a live performance at the famed Tzavta club. Two live bonus tracks, "End of the Orange Season" (the title track) and "Streetlamp" are included. For the first time on disk, these live performances give a new dimension to this classic Israeli rock. The booklet of photos and Hebrew lyrics tells their story.

Familiar Paths: Tribut to White Weddi	PP	64708	17.95
In 1981 when Shalom Hanoch introduced this album the country was not ready. Innovative along several lines, it was not a commercial success. However in the 27 years since that time each song in "White Wedding" has become a trailblazer - pointing the way to every up and coming Israeli singer/songwriter. Today this is still amazing music with high production values, but it has become mainstream. 12 contemporary artists gather together here to perform their chosen song in their signature style, and the result is a widely varied tribute to the music of Hanoch that is all today's sound. The Hebrew lyrics, the story, and photos of each artist are in the enclosed booklet.

4 CDs that are pure Israel. Artists of the new generation tackle Israeli classic songs and make them their own. Genre changes, arrangements and new voices not only add interest to an older song, but also serve to bring it once again to the fore and show its importance. For instance, the Mizrahi song "Up to Date" is sung in a Reggae style by Los Caparos, Sarit Haddad sings the famous Ofra Haza "Freha" song. It's a fabulous remix of old and new in time for Israel at 60.
Israeli Music Sing-Along	FK	39305	14.95
Volume 7 of the series "Golden Hits from Israel" (previously "Halleluya"), this CD has 20 all-time favorite sing-along songs by artists such as Netanela, Gevatron, Esther Ofarim, Sexta and more. It is accompanied by a brochure complete with English translations and transliterations of all the lyrics.
Israeli Pop 80's	PP	15421	16.95
📀 Israeli Song Festival of Rhythm	PP	520575	16.95
Israel was slow in accepting rock music or anything with a beat, considering it "uncultured." Western music seeped in during the late 60's, mainly to working class clubs. This festival, accompanied by political as well as artistic turmoil, marked a turning point. Its groups included singers who became names in their own right, such as Zvika Pick, Yitzhak Klappter, and Uzi Fuchs, and most of the songs, such as "I Who Have Nothing," "Those Were the Days," and "I Say a Little Prayer" were in English. Photos and album covers, as well as history, are in the brochure.

The Israeli Rock Collection (4-set)	RK	9026	54.95
Populated by rock songs of the 80s and 90s and entitled "End of the Orange Season" this set demonstrates that Rock in Israel is still going strong. The lyrics tell the real story of Israel in these hits by artists Broza, Rita, Kleinstein, and Ravitz, groups T-Slam, Friends of Natasha, and Benzeen and many, many others.
The Manor Collection (5-set)	CO/PP	9079	62.95
The beloved Manor has just departed us, but we have his musical legacy: 105 songs on these 5 disks, bio, lyrics, family photos and more. The innovator of pop, the man behind much of the music we hold dear, Manor wrote Eurovision winners such as "Abanibi," "Chai," and "Emor Shalom," himself winning the Israel and Akum prizes for musical achievement.
The Restoration of Israel: 60 Years	FK	9456	14.95
19 songs that characterize Israel's miraculous rebirth and development. Genres include folk, Hassidic, Spiritual, Yiddish, and anthems in all time favorites such as Halleluya, Jerusalem of Gold, popular medleys and more. Translations and transliterations are in the enclosed booklet.
The Shemer Collection (5-set)	FK/CO	9098	62.95
100 songs on 5 disks cover Naomi's illustrious career as Israel's national song and hymn composer. Songs such as "Al Kol Ele" ("For All This"), "Jerusalem of Gold," Yehoram Gaon's "I Haven't Loved Enough" and "The Eucalyptus Grove" are not just songs—they belong to everyone. Shemer, who recently passed away, won the Israel Prize in 1983.

Yovel is a prolific artist with almost 10 albums to his credit which is some of the most popular sing-along music in Israel, but singing is not his greatest talent. He is best known for his music, composing and arranging the pieces he sings, as well as those of many Israeli performers. This set contains his best work, most of which he wrote, many of which are folk songs to which he accompanies himself on the guitar. Lyricists include such top names as Meir Ariel, Ehud Manor, and Leah Goldberg. All lyrics and biography are in the enclosed brochure.

Hanan Yovel is one of the most prolific writers of song melodies in Israel. "You Remember These Songs" is the title of the first album in this 3-CD boxed set, and it's certainly true of these classics, many of whose lyrics were written by Israel Prize Laureate for Song, Ehud Manor. Says Manor, "I wish my voice were as warm and pleasant as Chanan's..." The 3rd album has duets with top artists such as Chava Alberstein and Shlomo Artzi.

He & She: Musical by Kishon (2-set)	FK/ST	64580	19.95
Arik Lavi and Shoshik Shani – inspired by the “stand up comedy” revue of Mike Nichols and Elaine May – starred in a wildly successful romantic musical stage comedy written by Ephraim Kishon in 1962. The first disk is the sound track of that show. Disk 2 contains songs of Arik Lavi, some of which are from the show. It includes the original rendition of the mysterious/infamous “Ha-Sela ha-Adom” (Red Boulder) that was banned from Israeli radio for years. The brochure contains the story of the show’s production, photos, and all the Hebrew lyrics.

SOLDIERS OF REVENGE

Subaru Crime	RP	636077	16.95
---------------------	----	--------	-------

Israeli "Gangsta Rap" with a Middle Eastern flavor. All words are written by the duo, one of whom is the son of Ethnic Israeli star Aliza Azikri. Several guest artists include well-known Mizrahi (Mideastern) singers Yishai Levi and Margalit Tzan'ani. In spite of some tough-sounding lyrics, this music is full of vitality.

SUBLIMINAL (G)
